Norfolk and Petersburg Anxious to Play Ball Here.

Petersburg and Norfolk are anxious to Petersburg and Norfolk are anxious to-get into the Twin City Baseball League. Applications from these two cities were read at the meetings of the managers of the league last night, and it was decided to defor the matter until Tues-day night, when a committee will be appointed to vist the two cities and submit a report. Upon this report the owners of the franchises at present will act.

Nothing was done at the meeting in regard to the differences existing beregard to the differences existing between Mr. Bender, crstwhile manager of the Richmond team, and the present manager. At the game this afternoon things are looked for and some excitement is expected.

things are looked for and some excitement is expected.

The managers last night formally discussed the playing of each team in the league, and several weak places will be strengthened.

NEW FACES TO-DAY.

Twin City League This Afternoon Will Be Unusually Interesting. Will Be Unusually Interesting.
With John Jennings as field captain and Third-baseman Edwards as mannger, the Manchester Colts will go against the strong team from Barton Heights on the Broad Street dlamond this afternoon. Both nines claim that the other will be defeated.
Manchester will show a line-up this afternoon that is new to the fans. Leake is out of the game, he having departed for North Carolina. John Anthony has likewise gone to join the Tar Heels. And out at first base there will be a strange face, for Albert Anthony, who has captained the team, has been released. Of course, Mr. Anthony can join any other team that he chooses, and he may do team that he chooses, and he may do this to-morrow.

Barton Heights, the nine that is now being selected as the winner of the pennant, will line-up like it has in the past.
Hoskins will, in all probability, do the twirling, and there is no better pitcher in the league. In no game this season has he allowed over five hits, and in several games there have been only one and two hits scored against him.

The Richmond aggregation will go against the champion Brownies, and this game promises to be the best of the season. Bob. Knightly is determined to win the game, and Eacho for the Brownies says he can't lose. Crawford will be in the box for the Richmond team, and Hulcher, the invincible southpaw of the Brownies, will do the pitching for the other champions.

"The Young Man in History."

The Boys' rooms on the east side of the Y. M. C. A. Bullding have been re-cently refurnished by the boys and are exceptionally attractive. Here the young men's meeting will be held on the summer Sunday afternoons. To-morrow af-ternoon at 3:30 the theme will be "The Young Man in History." The discussion will be led by Mr. C. W. Hardy, physical director, and Mr. J. H. Ricks, one of the young men members.

IS Superintendent Southall Writes

REMOVED

Former Clerk a Kindly, But Decisive Letter.

The sensational exposures in connection with the publication of the Virginia School Register and the consequent retirement of Messrs. Thomas and McGil yray, the principals in the affair, was the subject of universal discussion and comment yesterday. Many expressed their mitted themselves to be involved in such a damaging affair, and were at a loss to account for it. Expressions of regret were universal

With the completion of its business members of the board dispersed and have nearly all gone to their homes. Superin-tendent Southall left last evening. Mr. J. tendent Southall left last evening. Mr. J.
P. Thomas left the city a few hours after the "admission" or confession was made public. His whereabouts are not definitely known further than that he had gone "to the country."
Is supposed that he went to Louisa county
for rest after the terrible mental strain under which he has been laboring while he was also suffering acute physical pain.

he was also suffering acute physical pain,

he was also suffering acute physical pain, owing to his fractured elbow joint.

Mr. John A. McGilvray was made ill as a result of the double strain, for he, too, is still suffering from the effects of an unhealed carbuncle and from a nervous breakdown which has seriously impapaired his constitution. He was reported ill at his home, too ill to be seen or to discuss his plans for the future, if, indeed, he has formulated them. indeed, he has formulated them.

McGilvray Removed.

Superintendent Southall yesterday wrote and forwarded to Mr. McGilvray a brief formal communication, removing him from office, by instruction of the State Board. In the letter the kindly gentleman expressed the profound sorrow which his painful official duty imposed upon him. It conveyed no information, however, other than that already conveyed by the

him. It conveyed no information, however, other than that already conveyed by the morning paper, if he was permitted to see that. Deep sympathy is expressed for Mr. McGilvray in his sorrow by his friends, of whom there is a great number in this city and throughout the State. There is reason to believe that some members of the Board of Education would not have censured Mr. McGilvray very severely for his interest in the Register, if he had made a frank confession of it when the investigation began, would not have censured Mr. McGilvray very severely for his interest in the Register, if he had made a frank confession of it when the investigation began, and asserted that he was but following precedents. This was made manifest at both meetings of the board. Specific reference was several times made to the fact that a gentleman in the employ of the board had formerly published the Register.

Major Anderson in commenting on the valuable services and manly stand taken by Mr. L. H. Jenkins in the investigation of the Register matter, declared that he had shown the utmost zeal, carnestness and tireless energy? Mr. Jenkins was commended on all sides for his highly honorable and candid action throughout the entire affair. He came out of the affair unscathed and with credit rather than a scintilla of discredit,

While the Board of Education was compiling its finding and the addendum thereto descriptive of the history of the publication, Mr. Glass wanted the fact that Mr. L. R. Holland, now deceased.

thereto descriptive of the history of the publication, Mr. Glass wanted the fact that Mr. L. R. Holland, now deceased, had received a royalty on the publication incorporated and asserted as a reason therefor that it was a fact. The other, members of the board made the point that it had not been brought out in evidence, and was therefore, not properly to be considered. Mr. Glass pressed his view, but the board took an opposing one.

Publish Another Register

Publish Another Register. The Board of Education has constituted

The Board of Education has constituted a committee consisting of Mr. Glass, Mr. Bowles and Mr. West to compile and prepare a school register for use in this State in place of the Virginia Register, the contract for which has just been annulled. These gentlemen will be assisted by Secretary Brent of the board. It is expected that a very much lower price will be fixed on the Register to be thus prepared, and the State, it is presumed will own the Register and furnish it to districts; or if not will sell it at a nominal cost.

Mr. J. S. Thomas, of Lynchburg, was a candidate for superintendent for Campbell county, against Mr. W. L. Garbee. Mr. Willis Jenkins was a candidate for superintendent of the Newport News schools. Mr. C. G. Maphis, of Charlottesville, is the only one of the five who was not recently a candidate for superintendent. He is a druggist of Charlottesville, and has long been interested in education.

and has long been interested in education.

Mr. Jenkins was defeated for superintendent of Newport News after many ineffectual ballots. The board had grown weary of the deadlock, and finally adopted a resolution that after the next ballot the man receiving fewest votes would be dropped. The ballot resulted Morton, 3; Jones, 2; Jenkins, 1. Mr. Jenkins was then dropped and the member who had voted for him last changed to Mr. Morton, electing him. It is reported that Dr. Kent was the man.

Mr. E. H. Russell, of Bristol, who has been chosen inspector and examiner for the Eastern Virginia circuit, is the city superintendent of Bristol, and it is understood will hold both positions, certainly for the present.

MISSING TWO WEEKS AGO

Parties Have Been Asket to Look Out for · Him.

Driven to desperation by financial depression, largely due to an error of a New York firm for which he worked, Mr. W. A. D. Cole, owner of the patent of the "Try More" toa, has left his wife and twelve-year-old child in Richmond. Fears are entertained that he has committed suicide. For two weeks nothing has been heard from him, and yesterday Mrs. Cole aske dthe police to assist her in an effort to locate his whereabouts. Detective Mc-Mahon has been assigned to the work.

The missing man branded the tea known as the "Try More," and secured a patent for the sale of it. His wife worked with him, and they made an agreement with him, and they made an agreement with the firm of Duryee and Barwise, of New York, to pack the product and enclase coupons in each package. Mr. Cole was to be the principal salesman. Seve. all weeks ago he left Balt.more with his wife and daughter and came to Virginia. In and out of Norfolk he placed many orders with distributors and was prospering. Arriving in Richmond, he stopped at Murphy's Hotel and began the work of placing his tea among the merchants.

No Coupons Therein.

Shortly after arriving in Richmond complaints began to pour in from the distributors in Newport News, Norfolk, Suffolk and Petersburg that there were no coupons in the packages of tea they were selling. Customers were protesting to the retail men, who notified the distributors, and in this way the complaints came to Mr. Cole. One of the prizes of the coupons was a hundred-piece dinner set for coupons that would spell the name of the tea. One letter was in each package of tea.

When the complaints became so numerous Mr. Cole went to New York to see the firm that was packing his product. Mr. Duryoe, one of the firm, came to Richmond and explained that it was a mistake and that it would not occur again. But the mistake had cost Mr. Cole about four hundred dollars for the month, and his financial affairs were trying upon his nervous temperament.

From Murphy's Hotel he moved to the Valentine House, at the corner of Ninth and Capitol Streets. After being the of for several days he disappoared, leaving his wife and daughter without any visible means of support.
